

Singing out for the underdog in glorious harmony. Original songs packed with punch and emotion that will get beneath your skin, and all delivered with great humour.

Pre-Covid, Winter Wilson had completed tours of Australia, New Zealand, Canada, and most of Western Europe, in addition to the UK. Their eight studio albums had all received rave reviews, and 2019's "Live & Unconventional" (recorded on tour with folk-rock icons Fairport Convention and on stage at Cropredy Festival) was no different.

"If you need evidence of just how special the duo Winter Wilson is, then Live & Unconventional delivers in abundance." Steve Caseman, RnR magazine.

Back in Lincolnshire throughout the pandemic, the pair streamed "Live from the Lounge" for 60 consecutive weeks and also wrote and recorded "The Passing of the Storm", the duo's tenth album, adding further to their reputation as superb writers, singers and musicians, and great all-round entertainers.

Now performing stunning new songs alongside old favourites, Kip Winter and Dave Wilson are thrilled to be back on the road.
